Introduction to Mission

Syllabus

Course Description

Our God is a missionary God. From Genesis to Revelation, God is working to create a community of redeemed people from every tribe, tongue and nation for his glory. This class will help you better understand God's mission (missio Dei) and the vital role his church is called to play in advancing his kingdom. We will explore cross-cultural mission from four perspectives. First, we will look at what Scripture says about the mission of God (biblical/theological perspective). Second, we will examine culture and how we can more effectively communicate the gospel cross-culturally (cultural perspective). Third, we will trace the global history of Christian mission from the first century to the twenty-first century (historical perspective). Finally, we will explore how Cru fits into the global story of missions and how we, as Cru missionaries, can participate in God's mission to gather a redeemed people from every nation for his glory (strategic perspective).

Course Objectives

1. Biblical (3 lessons)

- a. Cultivate a God-centered and trinitarian view of Christian mission (missio Dei).
- b. Develop a greater passion to see Jesus Christ exalted in every nation and among every people.
- c. Beginning with God's promise to Abraham (Gen 12:1-3), trace the biblical basis for mission throughout the story of God from Genesis to Revelation.
- d. Better understand the nature and scope of the Great Commission Jesus gave to the church (Matt. 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-18; Luke 24:44-49; John 20:21; Acts 1:8).
- e. Investigate four missiological themes in Acts: the importance of cross-cultural witness, the need for contextualization, the power of the Holy Spirit and reality of suffering in Christian mission.

2. Cultural (3 lessons)

- a. Become a humble learner in the area of culture and ethnicity.
- b. Develop greater motivation to cross cultures in bringing the gospel of Jesus Christ to every people group.
- c. Grow in appreciation for the challenge in crossing cultures and effectively communicating the gospel.
- d. Better understand three aspects of culture (worldview, material-economic, social-relational).
- e. Discover tools that enable you to better understand and communicate more effectively with your ministry audience (ethnography).
- f. Become more persuaded of the need to contextualize the gospel in a way that is faithful to Scripture and meaningful to your ministry audience focusing on three areas: messengers, message and movements.

3. Historical (4 lessons)

a. Beginning with the first century, learn how the gospel has spread around the world through the witness of the church.

- b. Discover some of the surprising means God, in his providence, has used to spread the gospel around the world.
- c. Better understand barriers to the spread of the gospel in the history of the church.
- d. Further awareness about the current reality of the gospel among the people groups of the world.
- e. Explore the life and ministry of a cross-cultural missionary.

4. Strategic (2 lessons)

- a. Understand how Cru, as a religious missionary order, fits into the global story of Christian mission.
- b. Consider and personalize how you, as a missionary with Cru, can participate in God's mission to gather a redeemed people for his glory from every nation.

Required Texts

Ralph Winter and Steven Hawthorne, eds. Perspectives on the World Christian Movement: A

Reader. 4th ed. Pasadena: William Carey Library, 2013. ISBN-13: 978-0878083909.

This will serve as the main course text. It contains hundreds of short essays addressing key topics in mission. The Kindle e-book version is also available. (ASIN: BOON5CI6HE)

The EBook version includes two books, the Perspectives Reader and the Study Guide. We will not use the Study Guide in this course.

Timothy Keller. Center Church: Doing Balanced, Gospel-Centered Ministry in Your City. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2012. ISBN-13: 978-0310494188. We will read Keller's discussion of contextualization in this class. This book is also a required text for other IBS courses so you will be reading more of it in the future. The Kindle e-book version is also available. (ASIN: B005JSGB5Q)

You may also need to purchase a text for your missionary biography assignment (see page 4.)

Course Requirements

This course is part of your required development as a Cru missionary. The first and most critical step is setting aside a regular weekly time in your schedule to work on the class. Find a time when you are fresh and not likely to be meeting people for appointments (e.g., the morning). Put this class into your schedule as an "appointment!" Occasionally, circumstances will arise that require you to adjust your study time, which means you will need to prioritize at some other time during the week. You will also find it beneficial to work in an undistracted environment. The majority of this course will be completed online and can be accessed at the IBS virtual website: ibsvirtual.cru.org.

For each lesson you will partake in the following activities:

- o Praying for an unreached people group using Joshua Project
- Watching the corresponding video content
- Reading the required materials

In addition to your weekly activities, you will interact with your coaching group via forum posts at the end of each major section. There will also be four virtual coaching group meetings and two special projects during the course.

- Video Lectures: Each lesson contains 60-90 minutes of lecture or other video content (broken into smaller units). The video lectures can be found online via the course site. You may also download these videos to watch on a device of your preference. The course site will have more information about downloading the video lectures.
- 2. Reading: Each session will include roughly 25pp of reading from the Perspectives Reader, Center Church, or other articles. Through this reading you will be exposed to leading missionary strategists and practitioners around the world. The reading assignments account for 25% of your grade. At the end of the course you will submit a report showing how much of the reading you completed.
- 3. Group Posts: At the end of each major section (biblical, historical, cultural, strategic) you will write a short post in a forum describing what you've been learning and interacting with what others have shared. The forums can be found on the course site where you will be provided further instruction.
- 4. Coaching Group: You will be assigned to a coaching group with eight to ten other students. Your coaching group will meet on three occasions during the course using Google hangout. You are required to participate in these coaching meetings and need to adjust your schedule accordingly. Your coach will inform you of the dates and times of these meetings. The first meeting (following Week 1) will be a time to get to know your coaching group. The second (following Week 3) will center around your Cultural Learning Experience. The final coaching meeting (following Week 5) will focus on your Missionary Biography assignment and how you've grown and what you've learned overall in the class. Each meeting will be around 90 minutes, and you will be expected to share, discuss, and interact during these times. Coaching Group meetings account for 10% of your grade and will be assessed on your attendance and participation.

5. Missionary Self-Reflection: As we engage people with the gospel across differences of ethnicity, age, and more, it is vital that we know whom we are engaging as well as who we are—what we bring into these cross-cultural interactions. The various aspects of who we are shape the ways we see, experience, and understand the world.

The conversation between Jesus and the Samaritan woman in John 4 is perhaps one of the clearest examples of this in the Bible. Their interaction navigated many types of differences, not only of beliefs, customs, and values, but also of ethnicity, sex, and social standing. Marvin Newell, senior vice president of Missio Nexus and a former missionary, summarizes this succinctly:

Gender Barrier: she a female, he a male (Jn 4:7, 9, 27)

Class Barrier: she a lowly outcast among her people, he a respected rabbi among the disciples (Jn 4:31)

Religious Barrier: she a nominal worshiper at a pagan temple, he an obedient adherent to the Jewish religion centered in Jerusalem (Jn 4:20)

Ethnic Barrier: she a mixed-raced Samaritan (Jn 4:7), he a pure Jew with an impeccable pedigree

Cultural Barrier: she immersed in the Samaritan worldview, he of the Jewish worldview (Jn 4:9)

Newell, Marvin J.. Crossing Cultures in Scripture (p. 179). InterVarsity Press.

As we consider how we might navigate these same categories in our own time and place, it is helpful to remember that understanding these differences between us and our ministry audience is a good and necessary part of evangelism and discipleship done wisely. Additionally, when it comes to our relationships with fellow believers of other backgrounds, understanding these differences (minus the "religious barrier") is a good and necessary part of pursuing genuine unity in the diverse body of Christ.

In this assignment, you will reflect on several of these categories, focusing on how they have shaped who you are and how they impact your relationships with others - particularly those who differ from you in these areas. The Missionary Self-Reflection worksheet (linked in the assignment on the course site, Week 3) will guide you through the reflection process.

Specifically, consider your 1) ethnicity/race, 2) age, 3) sex/gender, 4) socio-economic class, and 5) at least one other category. Here is an incomplete list of other categories to consider:

- Christian tradition
- Other religious background (prior to faith in Christ)
- Culture¹

¹ Please consult the definitions in "Our Cultural Journey," the Culture and Mission team's cultural competency training.

² The focus on ethnicity/race, age, and sex/gender is based on the mission of Oneness and Diversity in Cru.

- Education level
- Family wholeness or brokenness
- Language
- Marital status
- Nationality³
- Physical and mental abilities
- Sexual orientation

Often, we perceive some things about ourselves with ease and clarity, while other things remain cloudy or even hidden from us. Knowing who we are helps us grow in awareness of how they may potentially help or hinder our work as missionaries in our particular contexts.

Some of you may already think about these things with great regularity. Others of you may not have ever felt the need to consider how these things shape your views, experiences, and interpersonal interactions. Wherever you are on your journey of self-understanding, you are invited to acknowledge the areas where you have greater self-awareness, as well as to deepen your understanding of areas you typically do not think about.

In addition to submitting your completed worksheet, you will share what you are learning about yourself with your coaching group at the end of the Cultural section of the course. The Missionary Self-Reflection constitutes 20% of your grade and is required to pass the course. Points will be deducted for late submissions.

Missionary Self-Reflection Grading Rubric

Category	Questions to Consider	Total Possible Points
Quality of Reflection	Do your reflections go beyond superficial responses? Are they thoughtful, genuine, and thorough?	30 points
Growth in Self- Awareness	Do you identify aspects where you have greater self-awareness as well as aspects where you are growing? Do you demonstrate a willingness to explore and wrestle with areas of growth?	30 points
Answering Questions	Do your reflections incorporate responses to the questions? At minimum, do you discuss ethnicity/race, age, sex, socioeconomic class, and one other category?	30 points
Quality of Writing	Are your reflections readable? Do you use proper grammar and spelling?	10 points
Total Grade		100 points

³ Nationality describes a legal relationship between an individual and a state, involving "allegiance on the part of an individual and usually protection on the part of the state." (Merriam-Webster)

6. Cross-Cultural Analysis: You will select a cross-cultural missionary to study. You can either read a biography (minimum of 50pp) or interview someone who has served, or is presently serving, on the mission field in a language and/or culture that is different from his or her own. You will find a list of recommended missionary biographies at the end of the syllabus, along with suggested interview questions (see page 8; they are also on the course site in Week 5). After you finish your reading or interview, you will write 900-1000 words summarizing what you learned. Structure your paper around the following three themes: (1) an introduction which describes the historical, cultural and geographic context of the culture in which your missionary served (additional research beyond your book is welcome, though optional), as well as a brief overview of the missionary's life and ministry; (2) positive lessons you learned from this missionary about crossing cultures effectively, and how they may be applicable to your own context, and what you might change about yourself (either cognitively or behaviorally) as a result; and (3) any additional personal or critical insights gleaned from studying the life of this missionary, including (for example): how you might disagree with them, or how you might update what they did for the modern world, or how you might revise them to be more biblical, or anything that surprised you, or any huge takeaway that was a revelation to you. As you reflect on the context of the missionary's audience and the lessons learned by the missionary, be sure to look for and consider the ways God was already at work among this people individually and collectively - prior to the missionary's arrival. (Theologians call this work of God the preparatio evangelica.) Be sure to include a bibliography at the end. Further details and direction can be found on the course site (Week 5). You will also share what you learned with your coaching group during one of the virtual meetings. The Cross-Cultural Analysis constitutes 30% of your grade and is required to pass the course. Points will be deducted for late submissions.

Cross-Cultural Analysis Grading Rubric

Category	Questions to Consider	Possible Points
Missionary Context and Characteristics	How well does your report describe the historical, cultural, and geographic context in which the missionary serves (or served)? How well does your report describe (briefly) the life and ministry of the missionary?	30 points
Positive Lessons about Crossing Cultures	How well did you share a positive lesson(s) learned about crossing cultures? How well did you apply this lesson(s) to your own context and determine what you might change about yourself (cognitively, behaviorally) as a result?	30 points
Personal or Critical Insights	How well did you share personal or critical insights into the missionary's life? (See assignment description for examples of what to look for.)	30 points
Quality of Writing	Was your report readable?	10 points
Total grade		100 points

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I get started with the class?

Please order the required texts as soon as possible. Before the course begins, you should receive an email with the necessary information to enroll in the course. At this time you will also be assigned a coaching group. You will have to set up an account on the course site (ibsvirtual.cru.org) using your Relay account. This is the same account information you use for the StaffWeb and to check your Cru email. After you create an account, use the enrollment key provided in the email to enroll in the course. The enrollment email will include more specific details on how to start this process. If you have not received an enrollment email, please contact lbs.Virtual@cru.org.

What if I have Questions?

Your first resource for course questions is your coach. Your coach's contact information will be included in the initial enrollment email. If you still have unanswered questions regarding Intro to Mission or if you are having technical problems, please send an email lbs.Virtual@cru.org.

Recommended Biographies

Reading missionary biographies offer several benefits:

- 1. They inspire us to obey God's call wherever, to whomever, whenever...no matter the cost.
- 2. They challenge us with those who have gone before as we see their faith and flaws, while recognizing God's grace in it all.
- 3. They teach us what has been done well in missions history and what may need to be "undone".
- 4. They help us recognize and wrestle with missiological dilemmas.

LESSON 2 Biblical: God's Missionary Heart in the NT – The Great Commission Dr. Timothy Tennent

Before you begin this lesson, pray for an unreached people group using Joshua Project

I. Introduction
II. Mission as a Work of the Triune God A. Terminology: "mission" vs. "missions"
B. Three movements in mission 1. Divine
2. Historical
3. Indigenous	-

C. Father, Son and Holy Spirit
1. The Father is the	of mission
2. The Son is the	of mission
3. The Spirit is the	of mission
III. Background of the Great Commission Texts
A. History of the term "Great Commission"

C. Perspective on the Great Commission texts
1. The "Great Commission" refers to	texts, not a single text
2. All of these are	sayings of Jesus
3. Variety of	in which they are delivered
4. These represent the ministry	spoken words of Jesus in his earthly
5. They represent the genre	texts in the context of the gospel

- IV. The Great Commission in Matthew's Gospel
 - A. Matthew 28 in the history of the church
 - 1. Used to address doctrines like . . .

2. Not used as a missions text

3. Why wasn't it used as a missions text?

B. Great Comn	nission is integrated in Matthew's Gospel
1. Gen	nealogy from "son of Abraham" and includes four gentile women
2. Gen	itile Magi from the East
3. Fligl	ht to Egypt
4. Gali	lee of the Gentiles (Zebulun/Naphtali)
5. God	l's grace beyond Israel
6. Sign	n of Jonah
7. Mat	ethew's Apocalypse
8. Gre	at Commission

C. Exposition of Matthew's Great Commission

Matthew 28:16-20 (ESV)

¹⁶ Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. ¹⁸ And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

1. "All authority"

2. The central command

3. Focus on "nations" (Greek = ta ethne)

4. People not places

5. How could Jesus have said "country" if he was just talking about geographic location?

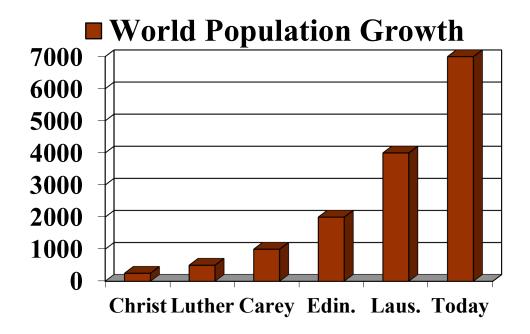

- 6. Why is the term "ethne" important?
- 7. In summary, Matthew's Great Commission focuses on discipleship/church planting and ethnic groups
- D. Why "ethne" as a geographic/political term is a problem.
 - 1. How many people groups are there in the world?

2. How many people groups have no viable gospel witness?
3. "reached" vs. "unevangelized"
V. The Great Commission in Mark's Gospel
Mark 16:15–16 (ESV) ¹⁵ And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation ¹⁶ Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.
A. One imperative (command)
B. Whereas Matthew focuses on "nations," Mark focuses on

C. Growth in the population of the world

ervations about Ma	rk's commission
1	, not people focus
2	love for every person (prevenient grace)

Luke 24:44–49 (ESV, bold emphasis added)

⁴⁴ Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled." ⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶ and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, ⁴⁷ and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

B. Key th	emes in	Luke

- 1. Specific reference to ______ of the Gospel message
 - a. Witness to the nations

Genesis 22:18 (ESV)

¹⁸ and in your offspring shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."

Isaiah 49:6 (ESV)

⁶ he says:

"It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel;
I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

b. what is the main point of the gospel?

2. Continuity of the Great Commission with the ______ Testament

3	/	group emphasis

4. The important role of the ______ in fulfilling the Great Commission

5. There is a new term in Luke's commission: "bearing witness" (this is not listed on Tennent's slides)

C. The Great Commission in Acts (also written by Luke)

Acts 1:6-8 (ESV)

⁶ So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" ⁷ He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

1. Parallels to Luke 24

2. Progression (Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and to the end of earth)

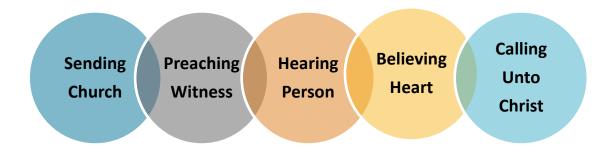

VI. The Great Commission in John
John 20:21 (ESV) ²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you."
A. Different from the synoptics (Matthew, Mark and Luke)
B. Jesus speaks of himself as the one
"sent one" – 40 times in John's gospel "For God to loved the world that He sent" "my food is to do the will of Him who sent me." "whoever hears my word and believes in him who sent me has eternal life." "I have cometo do the will of him who sent me."
C. Continuity between Jesus and the church
1. God sent his
2. Jesus sends into the world

3. Jesus (who was sent) becomes the _____

D. Links in Romans 10:14

Romans 10:14-15 (ESV)

¹⁴ How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? ¹⁵ And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!"

LESSON 3 Biblical: Missionary Themes in the Book of Acts Dr. Timothy Tennent

I. Introduction
I. The Holy Spirit in the Life and Experience of the Early Chu	urch
A. The Holy Spirit	the Church for global mission.
B. The Holy Spirit	the church with God's authority.
C. The Holy Spirit though the powerful manifestation of signs and wo	the inbreaking of the New Creation

III. Cross-cultural mission in Acts (This differs from points III and IV on the slides)

A. Believers scattered through persecution (Acts 8:1)

Acts 8:1 (ESV)

8 And Saul approved of his execution.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

B. Some are sharing the gospel with those of the same ethnicity (Acts 11:19)

Acts 11:19 (ESV)

¹⁹ Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews.

C. Full Circle of Mission Strategy

Step #1: Cross-cultural communication of the Gospel: Acts. 11:20 (Greek vs. Hellenist)

Acts 11:20 (ESV)

²⁰ But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who on coming to Antioch spoke to the Hellenists also, preaching the Lord Jesus.

Step #2: Church Planting in a new people-group: Acts. 11:21

Acts 11:21-22 (ESV)

²¹ And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. ²² The report of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

Step #3: New Believers are Discipled: Acts 11:26

Acts 11:25-26 (ESV)

²⁵ So Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, ²⁶ and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and taught a great many people. And in Antioch the disciples were first called Christians.

Step #4: New Laborers are Sent out: Acts 13:2

Acts 13:1-3 (ESV)

13 Now there were in the church at Antioch prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a lifelong friend of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ² While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³ Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

3. I	ndigenization

C. Contributions of "contextualization" discussion

ritio	que of Contextualization
	The term has become identified with the increasing of theological discourse.
	Contextualization is sometimes used as a vague synonym for cultural
	3. Contextualization has served as a shibboleth "code word" which provides for any kind of experimentation that helps us identify with the target culture.
	is a better than "contextualization" 1. Parallel with translation, moving faithfully from text to context
	Reinforces the priority of the Gospel message being communicated in context
	3. Acknowledges that is possible.

III. Case Study #1: Questions for Asian American Christians

QUESTIONS FOR ASIAN AMERICAN CHRISTIANS

1.Can you think of a Bible text that speaks especially to Asian Americans? Give an example.

AREAS OF LIFE

- 2. What celebrations/ceremonies are important for Asian Americans? Think of funerals, weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, New Years, etc. How is the Christian faith expressed in Asian ways at these events? Give examples.
- 3. What Asian American economic habits reflect Christian values? On the other hand, where does the Christian faith critique Asian American economic habits?
- 4. How do Asian American family and social structures reflect Christian values? Yet where does the Christian faith critique these structures?
- 5. How do Asian American attitudes toward education reflect Christian values? Yet where does the faith critique these attitudes?
- 6. How does the immigrant experience help us understand the Christian faith? For example, what Bible stories or teachings do we understand better because of the immigrant experience?

ASIAN TRADITIONS

- 7.Do you think Confucianism, or Buddhism, or Taoism shape part of our thinking as Christians? What are some examples?
- 8.Can you think of a traditional Asian story or proverb that shows Christian truth?

AREAS OF MINISTRY

- 9. Think about witness and service. Do you think there are emphases in Asian American outreach that are distinctive?
- 10. Think about worship. Do you think there are emphases in Asian American worship that are distinctive?
- 11. What are some of the most common Bible teachings in Asian American churches?

AREAS OF STRUGGLE

- 12. Think about mainstream American culture. How would you contrast mainstream American culture with the Christian faith?
- 13. What are the most difficult parts of the Christian faith for Asian Americans?
- 14. What life problems is the church NOT handling well? Where does the church need to improve?

THINKING CHRISTIANLY

15.Christian doctrines include: 1God 2Jesus 3Holy Spirit 4Humans in God's image but sinners 5Salvation 6Church fellowship 6Heaven & Judgment

Which of these are easiest for Asian Americans to understand? Which are hardest? Why?

16.Biblical periods include: 1Adam & Beginnings 2Abraham & Covenant 3Moses & Law 4David & Kingdom 5Esther & Exile 6Jesus & Gospel 7Luke & Church 8Paul & Mission 9John & Final Vision Which of these interest Asian Americans most? Why?

LOOKING AHEAD

17. What would be your dreams for Asian American Christian life and worship twenty years from now? Interviewee Data: Church & denomination. Ethnic heritage. Immigrant generation. Approx. age.

Look again at the questions on the previous page. Note how each question addresses a distinct topic, such as celebrations, economic patterns, family structures, etc. This specificity results from reading about Asian cultures, spending time with Asians, and thinking long and hard about what categories to emphasize, all BEFORE doing the research.

1. Augustine of Canterbury was sent to England (by Pope Gregory the Great)

a. Letter to Augustine of Canterbury by Pope Gregory (July 601)

The heathen temples of these people need not be destroyed, only the idols which are to be found in them... If the temples are well built, it is a good idea to detach them from the service of the devil, and to adapt them for the worship of the true God... And since the people are accustomed, when they assemble for sacrifice, to kill an oxen in sacrifice to the devils, it seems reasonable to appoint a festival for the people by way of exchange.

The people must learn to slay their cattle not in honor of the devil, but in honor of God and for their own food...If we allow them these outward joys, they are more likely to find their way to the true inner joy... It is doubtless impossible to cut off all abuses at once from rough hearts, just as a man who sets out to climb a high mountain does not advance by leaps and bounds, but goes upward step by step and pace by pace.

LESSON 11 Strategic: How does Cru fit into God's Mission to the Nations? Steve Douglass and Paul Eshleman

In this lesson we consider how Cru fits into the global history of mission. There are three sections to this lesson. In the first section, we will examine the history of Cru. In the second, Steve Douglass (President of Cru) will talk about what we are presently doing to help fulfill the Great Commission. In the final section, Paul Eshlemen will talk about what we are doing to engage unreached peoples with the gospel.

I. Understanding the History of Cru

We are developing a video on the missionary history of Cru. Unfortunately, it was not ready for the beta-test. You will watch a shorter video developed for the 40th anniversary celebration of Cru in 1991 that tells some of the early history of Cru.
